Limited Warranty Policy

This Limited Warranty Policy outlines the terms and conditions under which warranty claims will be handled for Blast or Launch bags purchased from us (as shown in the item table below.)

Product Warranty Period

Effective as of January 1, 2025, the warranty period for Blast Bag and Launch Bag has been updated to 90 days from the original date of purchase. This change applies retroactively, to items sold prior to this date as well.

Understanding Product Wear

Extensive design and material modifications have been incorporated into these products. However, due to their inherent nature and the expectation of extremely demanding use, the products are considered a consumable item. The predominant issues observed are not due to defects in material or workmanship, but rather are caused by wear and tear. This wear cannot be adequately prevented given the punishing conditions under which the product is typically used.

Warranty Determination and Coverage

We reserve the sole right to determine if an issue falls under warranty coverage. Warranty claims are limited to defects in material and workmanship, and do not cover normal wear and tear.

Any outside services beyond product replacement or repair are not the responsibility of Aquaglide and may be subject to separate or additional charges.

Retroactive Charges

We will not be retroactively charged by retailers for on-site service related to claims they have unilaterally determined to be warranty issues.

Expectations for Retailers

We understand if any of our retailers choose to no longer purchase this item. However, it is imperative to establish realistic warranty expectations for this product with customers.
